Representative Rob Teilhet will Qualify to Run for Attorney General on Tuesday

WHO: State Representative Rob Teilhet and his family

WHAT: Qualify to run for Georgia's next Attorney General

WHEN: Tuesday, April 27, 2010
9:30 am

WHERE: State Capitol

WHY: Rep. Rob Teilhet will qualify to run for Attorney General on Tuesday. Teilhet says his campaign for Attorney General will focus on crime prevention, ethics in government, and consumer protection. Teilhet is widely known as a champion in the General Assembly for protecting Georgians from rip-offs and con artists. He has been a reliable supporter of law enforcement and crime victims as a member of the House Judiciary Committee. Teilhet has also consistently fought for stronger ethics laws.

Teilhet's campaign has been endorsed by the IBEW, former U.S. Senate candidate Jim Martin, the President of the Legislative Black Caucus Senator Emanuel Jones, the President-Elect of the Georgia Solicitor Generals Association, Solicitor Robert James of DeKalb, Civil Rights Leaders Elder Bill Harris and Rep. Tyrone Brooks, and dozens of Democratic leaders throughout the state.

Rob Teilhet (pronounced tuh-lay) has represented Smyrna and Marietta in the Georgia House of Representatives since his election in 2002 at the age of 28. He is the Chief Deputy Whip of the House Democratic Caucus and serves on the Judiciary, Education, and Industrial Relations Committees. He is a partner in the Marietta law firm of Rogers, Strimban & Teilhet.
